LITERARY MAGAZINE SEEKS STUDENT WRITING, ART, AND PHOTOGRAPHY

Valhalla, Northgate's literary magazine, wants to publish student writing, art, and photography. The staff plans to produce two issues this semester. Their goal is to distribute the next edition in March and a second issue in May.

If you want your words or images included in the May publication, drop your submissions into any Valhalla folders posted in the hallways, bring your work to Ms. Taylor in Room 103, or give your contributions to Editor-in-

Chief Sofia Barrera or any other member of the magazine's editorial board: Kayla Foersterling, Tori McIntosh, Cari Raymond, Courtney Rundell, Rachel Tursi, Ashley Ulstad, or Jenni Williams.

LIGHTS...CAMERA... BOOK FAIR!

The media center successfully hosted a Scholastic Book Fair in the 9th grade media center last month. It was a fun event that benefited our media center and, therefore, our students and faculty. The media specialists received books and cash profits for the media center based on total book sales. These funds will be used to purchase books for the collection.
